

1930s Germany

images from:

<http://en.artintern.net/index.php/news/main/html/1/1012> (26 April 2012)

<http://artofheraldry.blogspot.com.au/2012/03/heraldry-of-third-reich.html> (26 April 2012)

Non-fiction & Fiction stories:

- The book thief. Marcus Zusak
- Mein Kampf. Adolf Hitler
- Little girl lost. Barbie Probert-Wright
- Mosaic. Diane Armstrong
- Jewels and ashes. Arnold Zable
- Konin. Theo Richmond
- IBM and the Holocaust. Edwin Black
- The boy in the striped pyjamas (also in film)
- The wrong boy. Suzy Zail.

Film:

- Cabaret
- The Great Dictator

Non-fiction:

- 909.82... photography – primary source materials
- 909.8... conflicts in history
- 909.82 CHR Chronicle of the Twentieth Century
- 940.5... History: First World War – Second World War
- 943... History: Modern Germany

YouTube:

- YouTube. The Germans made use of film during the 1930s and 1940s. A lot of it has found its way to YouTube
- search for Nazi Germany or your topic. Use KEY words. Eg "white rose germany", "Hitler Youth", etc.

Scoop.it

<http://www.scoop.it/t/history-of-nazi-germany>

- this is where you will find links to key websites for this topic.
- Some YouTube clips are included but you will find more information relevant to your chosen topic by searching YouTube yourself.

Timelines:

- create your time line using a free account <http://www.tiki-toki.com>

Images

- search Google images. Go to the website where the image was found and determine the authenticity of the image. Include images in your bibliography.